The Jake-Tom Enduro was held in remembrance of Jake Douglas and to celebrate a current, 40-year Hocking Valley Motorcycle Club (H.V.M.C.) member, Tom Scholl. H.V.M.C. is known for hosting hare scrambles. The Jake-Tom Enduro was the first time since 1997 that H.V.M.C. had hosted an enduro.

In preparation for the event, several H.V.M.C. members spent six weeks laying out the enduro.

With practically no rain for over a month in the area, dusty conditions made for a challenge on the trails during the race.

The layout consisted of nine checks and 94 miles of trail, with minimal miles of transfer.

Nick Fahringer (HSB), captured the overall win by four minutes over Zach Klamfoth (KTM). Fahringer dropped six.

"Being a new Enduro, it was impressive the amount of fresh trail that was used," said Fahringer. "I was happy to see most sections having check in and outs."

Josh Gaitten (KTM) tied with Klamfoth, but Klamfoth beat Gaitten by 69 seconds through the emergency checks.

Robbie Jenks (GAS) took fourth and Trevor Kline (KTM) took fifth overall, both with scores of 11; however, Jenks beat Kline with emergency-check points.

Overall A went to Marty Kehlmeier (KTM) who dropped 15 points and Overall B went to Vinnie Petrella (KTM) who dropped 18 points.
