BENCH RACING

Overall: Josh Gaitten

Josh Gaitten (KTM), said that he was glad to be back racing. Gaitten was also the 2010 and 2011 ACES series champion.

"I just got a bike three weeks before the event," commented Gaitten. "I had been sitting on the couch for four months prior to that. I was a little concerned about where my fitness and speed was going to be coming into today."

He said once he got going, he felt good. "I had a blast riding with Ryan Slopko during his first enduro."

Overall A: Marty Kehlmeier

Marty Kehlmeier (KTM), is a second year competitor in the ACES series. Kehlmeier commented that the race was, "Good but tough."

His favorite section was the AA section because he said, "The trail had good rhythm."

Kehlmeier also said that Travis Green and himself battled in the section that they expected to get checked out of but didn't.

Kelmeier was very appreciative of the people who work to put the races for the series together. He said, "I would like to thank the ACES series for doing great work."

Overall B: Ryan Slopko

Overall B winner, Ryan Slopko (YAM), said the hardest part of being a first-time enduro rider was "not knowing how to keep time, so I just followed Josh's [Gaitten] lead."

"It was different than what I am used to, but it was really fun," Slopko commented. "I am looking forward to the next enduro."
